

Where Has the Time Gone

By Sami Lin

I love you today, tomorrow until we die
Together in bed holding each others hands
Nothing can separate us
Nothing can stop this love

Where has the time gone
You're my only one

It started in Boston when we were young
Fresh out of college, making a few bucks
I pulled you out of the Foggy Goggle
To head up to Harp

I always had butterflies
Sneaking around IBT
Secret lunch dates
Stealing kisses with me

Where has the time gone
You're my only one

It started in Boston when we were young
Fresh out of college, making a few bucks
We met the families and fell deeper in love
Made our own family, a beautiful three

Where has the time gone
You're my only one
My forever partner in life
