

Unafraid

Erin, No please don't you
Please don't you fret
For you're a strong woman
And your AJ's entire happiness

AJ, loves you
And knows that love will win
But until then, he just can't wait to see you
Better than you've ever been

This whole life is one big scramble
That we gotta to take on from day to day
But AJ knows it's just the preamble
To a life where compassion will show us the way

AJ, will be there
For every step of the way
He isn't afraid
He isn't afraid
He isn't afraid
And by your side he will stay
